

Washington State JCI Senate
Scholarship Application Form 2009

Application Deadline

The postmark deadline or hand delivered (6:30 pm) deadline of complete scholarship application is Monday April 21, 2009 (See address below) a duplicate application must be submitted along with the original application are not to be bound in folders or binders. Applications that are incomplete or are postmarked after April 21, 2009 will not be considered.

Eligibility Requirements

This is member benefit scholarship open to Washington State JCI Senators or children, grandchildren, and/or great-grandchildren of Washington State JCI Senators. Applicants must be either currently enrolled, accepted or have an application pending at an institution of higher education, public or private, to be considered. Vocational-technical institutes, colleges, community colleges, and universities all qualify as eligible scholarship candidates. Nonresidents of Washington State are Eligible

Scholarship Grant Administration

Scholarship award may applied toward the recipient's tuition and fees in relation directly to enrollment documentation for the 2009-10 academic year by the scholarship committee. Scholarship funds will be released directly to the academic institution on behalf of the recipient. The Scholarship Committee reserves the right to establish scholarship values.

Judging Criteria and Judging Classifications

Applications will be reviewed and judged by the Washington State JCI Senate Scholarship Committee, a committee composed of Senate members. The primary intent of the committee is to discover well-rounded and civic-oriented woman and men and assist them in advancing their education. A weight of 80% is assigned to the judge criterion of community service and/or extracurricular community involvement. Factors such as the impact, duration and breadth of civic activism, as well as leadership skills, will be considered. The remainder of the application is assigned as weight of 20% during the judging process.

Applicants will be judged against their peers as it is recognized that adult students have diverse lifestyles and responsibilities. Scholarship applications from graduating high school seniors will be pooled and justified against one another, existing higher education students and returning students rise a second and third judging classification poll.

Announcement

Scholarship finalists will be contacted by the Washington JCI State Senate Scholarship Committee on or before May 1, 2009 and must then provide proof of acceptance at a post-secondary institution to remain an eligible recipient.

Washington State JCI Senate Scholarship Committee
C/O Dan Harries # 46204
1334 McCarroll Street Apt # 1
Clarkston, WA 99403
509-780-0535

Washington State JCI Senate Scholaraship-2009
Application Format

Complete the following profile section:

Applicants need to provide full legal name, as well as address and phone numbers for both home and campus where they can be contracted. Your social security number may be needed for identification purposes by academic institutions.

Full Legal Name

Social Security Number

Student Identification Number

Campus Street Address (put NA if not Applicable)

City, State, Zip Code

Campus Phone (including area code)

Permanent Street Address

City, State, Zip Code

Permanent Phone (including area code)

Check one _____ Graduating high school senior-Class of 2009
_____ Continuing undergraduate or graduate student (continue student Status)*
_____ Returning student (neither of the above and or least of the above and at least one year break from school).

*For demographic analysis, please indicate the year of your high school graduation: HS Class of (if not 09).

Fulfill the following requirement to compose your application:

- I. Civic History Summary-Prepare a one-page typewritten outline of your civic history. (Community activities, volunteer services, political campaigns, extracurricular activities, tuition, Athletic or church involvement may be a part of your history. Promote those that distinguish you from your peers. Supply dates for each cited activity.

- II. Civic History Detail-Prepare and attach a typewritten essay of up to three pages as follows. Select two or three events or activities from your civic history outline above that are/were the most important to you. Describe them move fully and explain why each were important to you. You should consider the impact it had on yourself an individual or the community. Otherwise, you are free to utilize the three pages however you feel best.
- III. Civic Aspiration Goals(s)-Express your fixture goals and/or aspirations In the area of civic activity or community development. Please limit your thoughtful response to one page.
- III. Testimonials Substantiations-Attach up three letters of recommendation or acknowledgements from individual knowledgeable o your community service and/or extracurricular community involvement. Testimonials from nonprofit agencies, volunteer organizations, elected officials, and beneficiaries of your community's service efforts are strongly encouraged no more than one letter from teachers, counselors will be accepted. A photocopy of the recommendations/acknowledgements letter in lieu of the original is acceptable. Testimonial/Substantiations must be submitted with this application-do not have it mailed separately. Plan to allow several weeks to receive testimonials from community contracts.
- IV. Grade point Average (except returning students) Attach a copy of scholastic transcript. An unsealed, unofficial transcript is acceptable for our purpose. Submit the transcript with this application-do not mail separately. Plan to allow at least one week receiving your current transcript.
- V. Other Preliminary verification of enrollment status at Washington institution.
 - (1) I am continuing students at the institution on my transcript
 - (2) I am an incoming student and have attach letter of acceptance
 - (3) My enrollment status will be pending as of Monday April 21, 2009

This side of the Application Format and Cover Letter is page one of your application. Underneath this sheet, arrange the attachments required under section I-V in the order presented. The resultant set of pages comprises the entire scholarship application to be submitted. Only stable the application together - do not package the application in binder or folders. Forward the entire application set and a complete duplicate on or by Monday April 21, 2009 to Washington State JCI Senate Scholarship Committee C/O Dan Harries # 46204, 1334 McCarroll Street Apt # 1 Clarkston, WA 99403.